DECLARATION BY APPLICANT'S ATTORNEY

Steven R. Scott declares upon knowledge, information or belief:

1. That there is an infringing device or product actually on the market or method in use.
2. That a rigid comparison of the alleged infringing device, product, or method with the claims of the application has been made, and that, in the declarant's opinion, some of the claims are unquestionably infringed.
3. That he has made or caused to be made a careful and thorough search of the prior art or has a good knowledge of the pertinent prior art.

I declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under 18 USC 1001, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.
